

Presenting the

2018 Harmony Creek Church Service Auction

December 8, 2018

6:00-6:30 pm Arrival

When you arrive you will pay a $10 participation fee for refreshments and dessert.

6:30-7:25 pm Silent Auction and Culinary Delights

Silent Auction tables will open at 6:30. Descriptive cards will be placed with each item offered for bidding. To place a bid, write your bid amount, bidding number, and name on the card of the item(s) you wish to purchase. Check back often to see if someone has topped your bid. The highest bidder gets the item. The Silent Auction will close at 7:30, so arrive early and bid often!

7:35-8:30 pm Live Auction with Auctioneer

Auctioneer Tim Lile will start the bidding on the Live Auction items at 7:30 p.m. Be prepared for side-splitting laughter!

8:30-9:00 pm Dessert and Coffee

Enjoy a selection of delicious desserts and coffee with your church family.

9:00 pm Closing and Check Out.

Payment can be made by cash, check or credit card. A credit card form is provided at each table for expedited check-out.

As reminders of this spirited season, Betty and Margaret will choose poetry, prose, and drama for all to participate. This event will take place at Margaret's beautiful Tudor-style home built in 1934 and located near the Miami Gold Club on Philadelphia Drive.

Una Storia Importante... (An Important Story...)

Donated By: Roy LeMaster, Bill Yowler, Gale Honeyman, Susie Honeyman, Linda Stephens

Qty	12
Est'd Value	$50
Min Bid	20

Bill Yowler, Roy LeMaster, Linda Stephens, Gale Honeyman, and Susie Honeyman are co-hosting a luncheon and butterfly/native plant workshop. This event will be held at Bill and Roy's home on Saturday, July 13, 2019 (rain date of Saturday, July 20, 2019). Participants will see butterflies in all stages from egg to caterpillar to chrysalis to adult butterfly and learn about specific host plants for butterflies. Each butterfly species will only lay eggs on a single family of plants. For instance, Pipevine Swallowtail caterpillars will only lay eggs in the Aristolochia family of plants and participants will be able to see caterpillars and butterflies on Roy's Dutchman's Pipevine. Participants will also learn about a variety of native plants and how they serve as a food source for birds, butterflies, hummingbirds and bees AND will receive a host plant (a plant that butterflies will lay eggs on) to take home.

Wisconsin Getaway

Donated By: Steven Sackman, Stephanie Sackman

Qty 1
Est'd Value $900
Min Bid 500

Spend a week in a rustic cottage in beautiful Door County, Wisconsin (the thumb of Wisconsin). Rated one of the top 10 family vacation destinations in the country, Door County is a rare, rural and splendid location with tons of summer fun. Choose to bike, boat, fish, swim, bird watch, golf, shop, dine, antique, and much more! Door County is cherry country where you can pick your own and bake those pies! Settled by Swedes, you'll want to partake of one of their famous fish boils. Enjoy a concert at the Birch Creek Music Performance Center, horseback riding at Kurtz Corral, or see a show at Peninsula Players, the country's oldest continuously-operating summer stock theatre. You simply must try the cheese curds from Renard's, the family-owned artisan cheese company! Wisconsin has a great state park system where you can buy a week pass and take it all in. Visit the Maritime museums, take a trip on an authentic Chicago Fireboat, and visit the world's first olive oil tasting bar, where you can buy the best BBQ sauce you've ever tasted.

The 2-bedroom country cottage is on 5 acres of wooded land, convenient to Egg Harbor. Reservation good for any available week between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

An Eastern Kentucky Immersion Experience

Donated By: Mike Castle

Qty	8
Est'd Value	$50
Min Bid	0

Please come join us in an evening of tastes and stories from Eastern Kentucky (the area in and around Paintsville, KY in Johnson County), where my family roots go deep. We will share in a very simple but very delicious "hillbilly" feast complete with Soup Beans, Corn Bread, Fried Potatoes, Ham Slices, Wilted Lettuce, Pickled Beets and Sweet Relish. Desserts will be Apple Pie and Cherry Cheese Cake (Appalachian-style!)

The food will be prepared from scratch under the supervision and loving care of the best Appalachian cook I know, my mother Peggy Castle, and her able assistant, my dad, Wayne Castle. To make the evening complete, I will tell a few stories and legends from Eastern Kentucky that give that region of the country a sense of place and meaning. I will also tell of some famous and infamous people who claim that hill country as their home (if you are thinking Loretta Lynn and Butcher Hollow, you would be right!) And who knows, my parents will probably throw in some stories that may even surprise me!

Date: February 17, 2018 at 6:00 pm.
